

Professional Development

for School Employees Powered by the Sub-Hub

Dear Administrator or Professional Development Coordinator,

We are a provider of online professional development for educators which is designed to help your teachers become and stay, highly qualified. Our trainings are utilized by school districts and independent educators alike to increase competence and understanding in areas of:

- Classroom Management
- Instructional Design
- Instructional Pedagogy and Student Engagement
- Student Response and Evaluation
- Child Development, Learning Styles
- Subject Area Skills Development
- Professionalism and Ethics
- Safety and Legality (ex – reporting obligations)

We offer hundreds of hours of interactive asynchronous online courses and exams which are utilized by thousands of districts and learners nationwide. Among hundreds of others who recognize the quality of our trainings, a few of our current school district customers include: New York City Department of Education, Miami-Dade County Public Schools, and Clark County Public Schools.

You probably received this letter from an educator in your school/district who is interested in receiving credit for their participation in our online training modules. The trainings available through our website were developed by experts in the field and reviewed by education professionals, often including our customer school districts.

In addition to trainings focused specifically on classroom skills, we also offer trainings which strengthen content understanding (Ex - subject areas training) and improve performance and professionalism (Ex – communication skills training).

Syllabi are available for training programs upon request and we are always happy to provide you will full preview access to the training materials as well, if desired.

We thank you for your dedication to continued professional development of educators at your school.

Sincerely,

The Sub-Hub Team
